08.30 - 09.00	Registration
09.00 - 09.15	Welcoming Delegates MC
09.15 - 09.30	Video Opening Dr. Antonius Alijoyo Chair of ERMA
09.30 - 10.15	Session 1: Keynote Opening "Embrace new frontier through dynamic GRC" A frontier is not just a place; it is also the process of adaptation and change that shifting borders force on people and institutions (Frederick Jackson Turner, 1893). In this context, Pandemic Covid-19 has given a hard lesson to us and simultaneously forced organizations to see beyond the current horizon, embrace and prepare themselves toward a new frontier where the new normal begins. GRC pundit Michael Rasmussen will deliver this session, who will share his views, observations, experiences, and some practical take-aways on preparing an organization toward such a new frontier through dynamic GRC as early as possible. One thing doesn't change regardless and timeless, i.e., Be a trustworthy and reliable organization where integrated GRC is the DNA and fundamentals, now and in the future. Michael Rasmussen GRC Analyst & Pundit at GRC 20/20 Research USA Host: Marc Schaedeli Chief Executive Officer of The Consulting Group AG (TCG) Switzerland
10.15 - 10.30	Break

10.30 - 12.00	Session 2 Post Covid Risks Outlook : A preliminary Mapping and its Implications In today's world, risk impact can go well beyond next quarter's financial statements to have longer-term reputational or regulatory consequence. Institutions must also consider whether the event triggering the risk has broad implications for their industry, the economy, and society at large—and what that means to them. Roman Zyla Corporate Governance Lead for East Asia and the Pacific IFC – Worldbank Thailand Professor. Stanislav Furta Doctor of Physical and Mathematical Science SFM RANEP Russia Arman Arakelyan Assistant Professor School of Public Administration, Moscow State University Russia Host: Fadjar Proboseno Chairman of Risk Resolution Former Head of Audit Department PT Astra International Indonesia
12.00 – 13.30	Break
13.30 – 15.00	Session 3 Harness Power of Data and Analytic : Getting the most of them Automation technologies can digitize transaction workflows end to end, reducing human error. Rich data streams from traditional sources, such as ratings agencies, and nontraditional sources, such as social media, provide an expanding and increasingly granular view of risk characteristics. Sophisticated algorithms enable better error detection, more accurate predictions, and microlevel segmentation. Aurelie Saada Asia Pacific Risk Lead Microsoft France Cut Noosy Keumalafajri Country Head of Customer Experience PT Solusi Transportasi Indonesia (Grab Holding) Indonesia Host: Alan Simmonds Co-founder and Director GDPR360 Key Contributor to Cobit 5 ISACA Cyber Risk Expert United Kingdom

DAY 2 (December 9, 2021)Session 5, 6, 7, and 8.

08.00 – 08.55	Registration
08.55 - 09.00	Welcoming Delegates Host
09.00 - 10.30	Session 5 Fortify Risk Culture : Prepare, Build and Sustain Risk culture refers to the mindsets and behavioral norms that determine how an organization identifies and manages risk. In moments of high uncertainty—such as those we are living through during the COVID-19 pandemic—risk culture is of exceptional importance. Companies cannot rely on reflexive muscles for predicting and controlling for risks. A good risk culture allows an organization to move with speed without breaking things. It is an organization’s best cross-cutting defense. Ricardo Lirag Saludo President and CEO Center for Strategy, Enterprise, and Intelligence (CenSEI) The Philippines Hendra Tan Chief Executive Officer 6Estates Pte. Ltd. Singapore Dato Lim Tong Kang Former Chief Risk Officer at Tenaga Nasional Berhad Malaysia Host: Professor. D. Sony Priyarsono Professor in Economics, Bogor Agricultural University, Indonesia Chairman of Academic Advisory Boards, CRMS Indonesia Indonesia
10.30 - 10.45	Break

10.45 – 12.15	Session 6 Cyber Risk Management Preparedness: What do we need to know and how to get it done Making an organization cyber secure may seem a daunting task, especially considering the quick and constant evolution of threats. The most important aspect of staying secure is implementing long-term cybersecurity measures. Cybersecurity is therefore an exercise in risk management. Alongside a dedicated cyber risk assessment, policies, including an information security policy, need to be established and continually updated to raise awareness of risks and best practices. Aldi Ardilo CEO and Founder Cyber Whale (Start Up) Indonesia Prof. Abu Bakar Munir Professor of Cyberlaw and Data Protection University of Malaya Malaysia Magda Chelly Managing Director Chief Information Security Officer Responsible Cyber Pte. Ltd. Singapore Host: Imelda C. Tiongson President and CEO of Opal Portfolio Investments (SPV-AMC) Inc The Philippines
12.15 – 13.30	Break
13.30 – 15.00	Session 7 ERM as a pathway toward the Organization's Resilience and Sustainability Covid-19 has been exposing organizations to vulnerabilities in their business models and risk management approach. In a survey conducted by AON in 2020, around 82% of its respondents said that before Covid-19, a pandemic or other major health crisis was not a top ten risk in the organization risk register. Further, only 16% of them felt confident that they are very prepared for future unprecedented events. As emerging risks will continue to challenge organizations across all industries, organizations have to re-prioritize Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) to build resilience, widen their perspective and elevate ERM as a critical business priority. Rasika Mohan Management Consultant at Blue Bike Solutions Former Advisor of Cardno on Business Strategy, Innovation and Sustainability Australia Didier Odorico Director of Risk Management Tetra Pak Switzerland Mostafa Ramzy Enterprise Risk Management Advisor Abu Dhabi National Oil Company (ADNOC) United Arab Emirates

	Host: Boy Michael Director and Indonesia Risk & Regulatory Consulting Lead PwC Southeast Asia Consulting (SEAC) Indonesia
15.00 – 15.15	Break
15.15 – 16.45	Session 8 ESG and SDG are at our front eyes: A calling for actions SDGs were formulated to bring a global consensus on pressing and pervasive social and environmental challenges, thereby rendering them universality in application and scalability in context, to gauge the impact of ESG investment strategies. As such, SDGs outline the key areas of impact and offer a practical framework to complement and support the ESG considerations, which are part of investors' existing fundamental research methodology. This session will take participants look at the overarching linkages between the investment case for SDGs and ESG drove investment decisions and how they can lead to tangible consequences for both the investors and the corporates. Yves Guerard Climate Risk Expert Former Secretary General of the International Actuarial Association Canada Saloon Tham Chairman China Life Insurance Taiwan Thailand Mahmoud Elbagoury Chief Audit Executive Union Group and Principal of Egyptian Institute of Directors (EIoD) Egypt Host: Rasika Mohan Management Consultant at Blue Bike Solutions Former Advisor of Cardno on Business Strategy, Innovation and Sustainability Australia

DAY 3 (December 10, 2021)Session 9 and 10

08.30 - 09.25	Registration
09.25 - 09.30	Welcoming Delegates Host
09.30 - 10.15	Session 9: Keynote Business exists to take risks - now and then With the world changing at a tremendous pace, it would be a huge mistake not to bring changes in your company. Organization leaders either play it safe or take risks. While the former gives stability – or rather the illusion of stability – in the organization, it doesn't last long before an aggressive new competitor sweeps in and takes over the market. This session will be delivered by David Koenig, the global DCRO (Director and Chief Risk Officer) institution. He will share his experiences, insights, and foresight regarding risk-taking in a balanced view while exploring the thoughts and aspirations of some global leaders'. David R. Koenig Founder and Principal of Director and Chief Risk Officer (DCRO). United States Host: Paul Choon Guan Gwee Secretary General ASEAN Bankers Association Singapore
10.15 - 10.30	Break
10.30 - 12.00	Session 10 Reset aspiration for Risk Management - from preventive and mitigation to dynamic risk management To meet the needs of the future, companies need to elevate risk management from mere prevention and mitigation to dynamic strategic enablement and value creation. This requires clear objectives, such as ensuring that efforts are focused on the risks that matter most, providing clarity about risk levels and risk appetite in a way that facilitates effective business decisions, and making sure that the organization is prepared to manage risks and adverse events. Bryan G. Roylett Principal of Roylett Risk Management RRM the RI$K Network Australia Dr. Frank Herdmann Auxilium Expatbiz Service Managing Partner Germany Aleksandar Jovanovic Research Center for Interdisciplinary Risk and Innovation Studies EU Project Director Germany
